

Staph Positions

SPL - Senior Patrol Leader

The SPL runs troop meetings and activities. It is the highest youth leadership position.

ASPL - Assistant Senior Patrol Leader

Job Description Sheet

The ASPL assists the SPL. If the SPL is not at a meeting or activity, the ASPL will take over. The ASPL needs to work closely with the SPL.

PL - Patrol Leader

Job Description Sheet

The Patrol Leader leads a group of scouts, hosts patrol meetings, and keeps the members of their patrol informed.

Quartermaster

Job Description Sheet

The Quartermaster keeps track of the troops' supplies, loads and unloads the troop trailer, and manages all of the supplies that are needed in the troop.

Troop Guide

Job Description Sheet

The Troop Guide helps ASM's with teaching basic skill scouts. They should set a good example for younger scouts. They do not work on Merit Badges.

Instructor

Job Description Sheet

The Instructor teaches other scouts skills that can include outdoor activities and rank advancements.

Chaplain's Aide

Job Description Sheet

The Chaplain's Aide hosts prayers at campouts and troop events, such as Court of Honors.

Historian

Job Description Sheet

The Historian mainly gathers photos and makes a scrapbook by the end of his term.

Webmaster

Job Description Sheet

The Troop Webmaster manages and updates the troop website.

Scribe

The Scribe takes manages things such as records and takes notes during PLC's.